8. APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

- 8.1. Candidates for membership are required to complete an Application for Membership form, which shall include personal details, sail and/or power boat details, past and/or current membership of other clubs, areas of expertise and/or willingness to assist in particular club activities. This form shall be signed by the applicant.
- 8.2. The Club's website address, where applicants' may find the Club's Constitution and By-laws, is noted on the application form and the applicant shall ensure that he/she has read and understands the contents thereof prior to meeting with the MANCOM members on being considered as a member.
- 8.3. The applicant must be proposed and seconded by Club members who have been members of the Club for at least two years.

- 8.4. This form must be signed by a proposer and seconder. If they are committee members, sub-Article 8.3 does not apply.
- 8.5. The applicant must be interviewed by two MANCOM members who shall also sign this form. One at least of the two MANCOM members must be a Flag Officer.
- 8.6. This form, duly completed, together with the entrance fee and the first years' subscription must be forwarded to the Administrative Officer or the Club Manager. Until an application has been adjudicated by MANCOM, the applicant shall have temporary status.
- 8.7. The form shall be posted on the Club notice board for at least five weeks prior to the MANCOM meeting at which the said application is to be considered. Any objection received from an existing member to the applicant's membership application will only be considered if handed to MANCOM in writing within the 5 week waiting period.
- 8.8. No candidate shall be admitted as a member unless he/she receives the votes of at least two-thirds of MANCOM members present and voting and shall have paid the entrance fee and first year's subscription. MANCOM shall not be required to give any reasons for rejection. In either case the candidate shall be advised in writing of MANCOM'S decision. The candidate will be invited to meet with a Flag Officer and one other MANCOM member to be advised of his/her admittance.
- 8.9. No class of member who has been suspended or who has been expelled under Article 42 or otherwise in terms of this constitution and who thereby ceases to be a member, shall be allowed to re-apply for membership prior to a period to be determined immediately following MANCOM ratifying the decision of the investigating committee and the member notified accordingly. Such application and subsequent acceptance and/or rejection, shall only be decided at a MANCOM meeting.
- 8.10. Whenever a former Single or Family member applies for membership of the club it shall not be necessary for such member to comply with requirements of sub-Articles 8.3 to 8.5 and 8.7 to 8.8 above and MANCOM shall be entitled to re-admit such former member with immediate effect provided however, that such member left in good standing (i.e. Fees and Subs fully paid up and no action having been taken against such Member in terms of Article42). The Entrance fee payable by such former member on re-admission shall be based on the settlement of any outstanding fees due by the former member (if applicable) and shall be the lesser of the current entrance fee or as calculated at 10% of the applicable entrance for each year since termination of original membership.

9. REJECTED CANDIDATE

No rejected candidate may be proposed again until the expiration of 6 (six) months from the date of his rejection. If however, MANCOM is of the opinion that the reason(s) for the previous rejection has been resolved and circumstances now permit the applicant to submit a new application then he/she may do so immediately.

10. MEMBERS

 - 24.1.10 Club Manager

- 24.2 Five members of MANCOM, of which at least two must be Flag Officers and of which one must be either the Commodore or the Vice Commodore, shall form a quorum. The Honorary Life Commodore shall be entitled to attend all MANCOM meetings, but have no vote.
- 24.3 MANCOM may, from time to time, confer Temporary Honorary Membership, for such limited time, as it may determine, upon any person who merits such distinction by virtue of holding some public office within the Management Committee. In acknowledgement of the commitment to serve on MANCOM, the elected office bearers of MANCOM are granted Single Member Honorary annual membership to the Club.

25. FUNCTIONS OF MANCOM

The duties and responsibilities of MANCOM are: -

- 25.1. To open and operate a banking account and to make all arrangements for the financial and general upkeep of the Club and to borrow money on behalf of the Club.
- 25.2. To spend any of the monies of the Club in such manner as they may deem conducive to the Club's interests unless such spending either exceeds R100,000 or requires prior authorisation in terms of sub-Article 11.10.
- 25.3. To invest the surplus funds of the Club in such manner and for such purposes as, in MANCOM'S opinion, are best calculated to further the objects of the Club.
- 25.4. To institute, defend, carry on, abandon, compromise and settle any action or actions and other proceedings in any Court of Law and to submit any claim by or against the Club and any dispute to arbitration. The Club shall sue and be sued in the name of Lake Deneys Yacht Club.
- 25.5. To provide by resolution for the signature on behalf of the Club all Powers of Attorney or other deeds or documents requiring signature.
- 25.6. To do all such acts and things consistent with these rules, which in the interest of the Club may be considered necessary.
- 25.7. To pass By-laws for the regulation of the affairs of the Club, so long as they do not conflict with the Constitution of the Club. All such By-laws shall be posted on the Club web-site (copy available on request). Any additional or amendments to current by-laws will be posted on the notice board for a period of three months after acceptance by the committee.
- 25.8. Any member of MANCOM failing to attend three consecutive ordinary meetings of MANCOM without having obtained leave of absence, shall cease to be a member of MANCOM, his place to be filled by a person nominated by the remainder of MANCOM who shall also have the authority to fill any casual vacancy.

- 25.9. No member of MANCOM shall vote to take part in the proceedings of MANCOM when any matter in which he, his wife, a partner, a relative with the second degree of consanguinity or affinity or any company of which he is an officer, has any direct or indirect interest, is dealt with.
- 25.10. Any member who contravenes the provisions of sub-Article 25.9 shall be liable to suspension from MANCOM, who shall decide the length of such suspension. In addition, all such proceedings shall be of no effect unless the contrary is decided by the Annual General Meeting to which such matter shall then be referred.
- 25.11. To decide on annual membership and subscription fees charged to members by the Club.
- 25.12. MANCOM shall have the power to appoint sub-committees to deal with matters concerning special functions and other subjects as they may deem necessary from time to time. All such sub-committees shall maintain minutes of all meetings.

26. ELECTION OF OFFICE BEARERS

- 26.1. MANCOM shall be elected each year. No person may be elected to more than one position on MANCOM unless this occurs as a result of the application of the provisions of sub-Article 26.8.
- 26.2. Nominations for the Committee shall be in writing, shall be signed by the Nominator, Secunder and the Nominee, and shall be lodged with the Club Secretary by not later than 14 days prior to the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take place. All nominations shall be displayed on the Club Notice Board for not less than fourteen days prior to the said Annual General meeting. Only Ordinary members and Honorary Life members shall be eligible to nominate or second Committee members.
- 26.3. Candidates nominated for MANCOM shall be fully paid up members for the current year and shall be proposed and seconded in writing by two members of the club and counter-signed by the candidate himself, signifying his acceptance of the commitments of his office and those entered into in good faith by the outgoing MANCOM, and shall be placed in the hands of the Secretary one hour before the Annual General Meeting.
- 26.4. At the close of the nominations, a complete list shall be posted on the notice board in the clubhouse.
- 26.5. If the number of persons nominated does not exceed the total number to be elected, the members so nominated shall, at the Annual General Meeting, be formally declared as elected for a period of one year.
- 26.6. If the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number of vacancies, the election shall be by ballot.

- 26.7. Nominations may be made at the Annual General Meeting, but only if insufficient nominations to fill the vacancies have been made in proper time.
- 26.8. In the event of the Commodore resigning during his term of office, the Vice Commodore shall be the successor. Where this is not possible, MANCOM shall elect a successor from the existing MANCOM members.
- 26.9. The preceding sub-Article 26.8 shall also apply to all MANCOM members.
- 26.10. In the event of additional MANCOM resignations where MANCOM is unable to elect a successor from the existing MANCOM members. MANCOM may temporarily appoint any fully paid-up ordinary member/s who is entitled to vote at General Meetings and who is eligible to be elected as an officer on committees. The temporary appointment must be ratified by a vote of the members at a Special General meeting, convened for that purpose, within three months of the temporary appointment or the next Annual General meeting, provided same is within three months of the appointment
- 26.11. In the event that no Commodore is elected at the Annual General Meeting then and in such event the out-going Commodore shall adjourn the meeting for a period of 30 minutes to allow the members to provide nomination for the office of Commodore. At the end of the 30 minutes period mentioned above the Commodore shall reconvene the meeting and again ask for nominations for post of Commodore. If none be received, the meeting will then be adjourned by the outgoing Commodore for a period of four weeks. The administration shall then be attended to by the outgoing Commodore and committee.
- The outgoing committee shall cause notices to be forwarded to members notifying them of the re-convened Annual General Meeting and again calling for nominations.
- If after the necessary notices have been posted and after re-convening of the meeting referred to above no Commodore is then elected, the Club shall then be wound up in accordance with the provisions of Article 47 of the Constitution.

27. MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE (MANCOM) MEETINGS

- 27.1. MANCOM may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, but shall meet at least once a month and minutes of their proceedings shall be entered in a book for that purpose and copies thereof distributed to all MANCOM members.
- 27.2. MANCOM shall convene Sub-committees comprising of a Sailing Committee (SAILCOM) and Development Committee (DEVCOM)
- 27.2.1. These sub-committees will convene meetings at least once quarterly or when circumstances dictate. These meetings will be chaired by their respective departmental heads.

- 27.2.2. Proper minutes shall be kept and copies shall be sent to all MANCOM members no less than 7 days prior to the next scheduled MANCOM meeting in addition to the members of the Sub-Committees concerned.
- 27.2.3. A Sub-Committee where necessary, shall elect from its own participating members a secretary to record the minutes of the meeting.

However in the event of MANCOM wishing to propose any alteration or addition to the constitution then such proposal shall accompany the notice of an Annual General Meeting / Special General Meeting. Such proposals must bear the signature of a seconder. A two thirds majority of those present and entitled to vote is required for any alteration to the Constitution.

32. SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

- 32.1. A Special General Meeting may be called at any time by MANCOM or must be on receipt of a requisition signed by five members stating the business to be discussed.
- 32.2. Notice and agenda of a Special General Meeting shall be sent by the Secretary to every member within 21 days of receipt of requisition and the meeting must be held after 14 days, but before 28 days of such notice.
- 32.3. Only such business may be discussed at a Special General Meeting as appears on the agenda.

33. QUORUMS AT MEETINGS

Management Committee 5 Members (Refer Sub-Article 24.2)

Annual General Meeting 30 Members

Special General Meeting 30 Members

In the event that a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the starting time of an Annual or Special General meeting, the meeting will be adjourned for an additional one hour, when those present and entitled to vote may proceed with the business of the original Agenda and all decisions recorded will be accepted as if a quorum was present.

34. VOTING RIGHTS

Only ordinary, paid up members (refer Article 7), the Honorary Life Commodores and Honorary Life Members shall be entitled to one vote at an Annual or Special General meeting on production of a current membership card or proof thereof.

35. AUDITOR

An Auditor, registered in terms of the Public Accountants and Auditors Act shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting. He/she shall examine the books of account and balance sheet and income and expenditure statements at the end of the financial year and whenever requested by MANCOM. All such audits shall be reported to the members at the Annual General Meeting.

36. REGISTRATION OF WATERCRAFT

- 36.1. Every form of watercraft (power, sail or otherwise) owned by any member(s) of the Club shall be registered on a form specified for the purpose by the Administrative Officer.
- 36.2. In the event of any change of ownership or name the same shall be notified to the Administrative officer and a registration effected.
- 36.3. The Administrative officer shall be notified of the disposal of a registered watercraft by any member.
- 36.4. A list of all watercraft by type name, and details of owner shall be maintained in the Clubhouse.

37. REGISTER OF MEMBERS

A register of members of the Club shall be kept up to date by the Administrative officer and shall be made available for inspection by any member entitled to vote. This register shall also form a part of the books of account.

38. RESIGNATIONS

Any member desirous of withdrawing from the Club shall be permitted to do so upon notifying the Administrative officer not later than 31st March prior to that financial year in which the retirement is desired, and upon payment of all liabilities due by him/her to the Club failing which he/she shall be liable for the following year's subscription.

39. VISITORS

Any single, family or honorary member of the Club in good standing and paid up may introduce guests to the Club subject to the following conditions: -

- 39.1. The host member shall be present at all times during the guest's visit to the Club.
- 39.2. The host member shall at all times be responsible for the actions and behavior of his guest/s and shall ensure that such guests comply with all the provisions of the Club Constitution, By-laws in force from time to time and, in addition, any site layout or planning provision in force from time to time.

- 39.3. The host member shall ensure that all the necessary gate log entries as prescribed by MANCOM from time to time are complied with and shall be present to receive his guests at the gate or shall make prior arrangements for their entry in accordance with directions given by MANCOM from time to time.
- 39.4. The host member shall be responsible for the immediate payment of all visitors fees prescribed from time to time.
- 39.5. No country, junior, reciprocity or temporary member shall be entitled to introduce guests.
- 39.6. Visitors' fees for guests shall vary from time to time in accordance with the directions of MANCOM.

40. MEMBERS WITHOUT CARAVAN SITES

- 40.1. Any member who does not have a permanent caravan site shall be entitled to bring a caravan or tent on to the Club property but shall be charged a daily fee at a rate to be prescribed by MANCOM for each caravan parked or tent pitched on the Club property.
- 40.2. The above charge in respect of caravans shall not apply to any member who holds a permanent caravan site at the Club in respect of which an annual fee has been paid by such member and which accommodates the caravan of such member, provided that any member who holds a permanent caravan site shall not have more than one caravan on such site without the prior written approval of MANCOM and compliance by the site owner with any conditions imposed by MANCOM.
- 40.3. The onus rests on the member concerned to ensure that all the prescribed fees are promptly paid.

41. NOTICES

- 41.1. Every member shall furnish to the Administrative officer an address to which all notices shall be sent and any change in same shall be promptly sent to the Administrative officer.
- 41.2. All notices required by the Constitution, By-laws or rules to be sent to any member, shall be deemed to have been duly sent when mailed or otherwise forwarded to the address so furnished.

42. DISCIPLINE

- 42.1. MANCOM shall, at their first meeting after the Annual General Meeting, appoint at least two members as an Investigating Committee under this section. This independent body shall be responsible to Mancom for conducting investigations in terms of the procedures below and making recommendations accordingly.
- 42.2. MANCOM is the authoritative body in respect of discipline within the Club and shall take whatever measures as required to maintain an acceptable standard of behaviour and inflict the appropriate penalties whenever so required.

42.3. CODE OF CONDUCT

- 42.3.1. Unsatisfactory conduct shall include, but not be limited to:
- 42.3.1.1. Dissent at, or reaction in a provocative or disapproving manner, whether verbal or written.
 - 42.3.1.2. Physical abuse, intimidation, assault or attempting to intimidate or assault any member or individual.
 - 42.3.1.3. The use of crude, foul or abusive language or the making of offensive gestures or hand signals whether directly at a member or otherwise.
 - 42.3.1.4. Any form of abuse or discrimination, relating to race, religion, creed or any other nature.
 - 42.3.1.5. Willful damage to property, equipment or buildings.
 - 42.3.1.6. Endangering one's safety and/or the safety of others
 - 42.3.1.7. The use or distribution of illegal drugs or substances
 - 42.3.1.8. Ungentlemanly conduct or any other action that is likely to bring the club into disrepute or prejudice its good name or interests.
 - 42.3.1.9. Repeated infringements of the "spirit" of the club by a member or related individual, where each infringement, in itself does not merit any immediate disciplinary action. Such instances will result in a hearing and the member will be held responsible for his/her or related individual/s conduct.
 - 42.3.1.10. Any reported unacceptable behaviour, by word or action, at any function as participated by, or associated with the Club.

42.4. REPORTING AN INCIDENT

- 42.4.1. Any complaint about incidents of misconduct or improper behaviour must be notified in writing to the Club Secretary no later than five (5) days following the incident. Any complaints reported outside this time will only be accepted in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the Commodore. The complaint should, however not necessarily, be supported with evidence such as written statements from witnesses and other documents.
- 42.4.2. The Investigating Committee shall convene a hearing within 30 days of receipt of the complaint and shall notify the Complainant and the Respondent of the date. It is the responsibility of the Complainant and the Respondent to present evidence, including arranging the attendance of witnesses, at the hearing.

42.5. DISCIPLINARY HEARING

- 42.5.1. The hearing is not a Court of Law but an enquiry into the circumstances giving rise to the complaint. No legal representation will be allowed. The Investigating Committee shall comprise three (3) members, who shall be one (1) of the Club's Trustees and two (2) MANCOM members. The Trustee member shall Chair the hearing. The Chair shall appoint one of the members to make written notes of the hearing. The decision, penalty and other matters arising for determination at the Hearing shall be on the basis of a simple majority vote. In the event of a split decision, the Chair shall have a casting vote.
- 42.5.2. No person who is connected in any way with the complaint shall be involved in convening or officiating at the Hearing or on an Appeal. If this rule prevents the Commodore, trustee or other officer from fulfilling a function under these rules, that function shall be delegated by MANCOM to another officer or person.
- 42.5.3. The decision of the Investigating Committee shall be given in writing within seven (7) days of the meeting and will be actioned at the effective date subject to any possible appeal. In the event of an appeal being lodged, the hearing sanction shall be suspended until determination.
- 42.5.4. The Chair shall determine the conduct of the hearing which shall be in accordance with these procedures.

42.6. APPEAL PROCEDURE

- 42.6.1. The Complainant and the Respondent may appeal the decision of the Investigating Committee. An appeal against the decision of the Committee shall be given in writing, setting out the reasons thereof and must be received by the Club Secretary no later than seven (7) days from the date of the decision to be appealed against. The Appeal Committee shall have the power to accept out of time appeals only in exceptional circumstances.

- 42.6.2. Upon receipt of the appeal, the Secretary shall convene a meeting of the Appeal Committee and give no less than 7 days notice to the Complainant and the Respondent.
- 42.6.3. The Appeal hearing is also not a Court of Law and no legal representation shall be allowed. The Appeal Committee shall comprise five (5) members, who shall be two (2) Trustees and three (3) MANCOM members, excluding any who comprised the initial Hearing whose decision is under appeal. In the event that there are insufficient qualified persons to sit on the Appeal Hearing, MANCOM may appoint other members of the Club to sit. The Appeal Committee shall nominate one of its members as Chair. The Chair shall appoint one of the members to make written notes of the Appeal Hearing.
- 42.6.4. The Appeal Committee shall have the power to overturn or vary the decision and to uphold, increase or decrease the sanction or penalty (if any) imposed.
- 42.6.5. The decision of the Appeal Committee shall be final and binding on all parties and shall be confirmed in writing by the Club Secretary as soon as possible thereafter.
- 42.6.6. The Chair shall determine the conduct of the appeal which shall be in accordance with these procedures.

42.7. NOTIFICATION AND RECORDING OF OFFENCES

- 42.7.1. All information relating to matters of Discipline will be retained by the Club and be available to all Flag Officers and MANCOM members.
- 42.8. Without derogating from the generality of the foregoing any breach of the provisions of sub-Article 11.7 as inserted, or of Article 39, shall for the purposes of Article 42 be deemed to be ungentlemanly and/or unsportsmanlike and/or conduct injurious to the character of the Club and/or injurious to the interest of the Club.

43. RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS

All members shall be bound by these rules and MANCOM decision in the case of dispute or interpretation of the rules shall be final and binding on all members of the Club.

44. COMPLAINTS

- 44.1. All complaints shall be made in writing and must be in the hands of the Secretary at least three days prior to a MANCOM meeting; otherwise MANCOM may hold the complaint over until the following meeting.

- 44.2. Such complaint in writing need not be necessary if at least two members of MANCOM are witness to such complaint and they may request the Chairman or in his absence the Secretary to convene a special meeting of MANCOM. The nature of the business for which such a meeting is called shall, where possible, be stated in the notice convening the meeting, but in no case may any business, other than that for which the meeting is specially called, be discussed at such meetings.

45. MEMBERS LIABILITY

The liability of members is limited to the amounts, which they may be owing to the Club in respect of unpaid subscriptions or otherwise.

46. TRANSITIONAL MATTERS

In order to give effect to the implementation of measures to make the Club more financially viable it is resolved as follows: -

- 46.1. That 4 or more affiliated clubs be established and that the Constitution of the affiliated clubs be approved by MANCOM.
- 46.2. That it be condition of membership of the Club (other than in respect of country or temporary members) that such member also be a member of one of the affiliated clubs and vice versa.
- 46.3. That the Club enter into agreement with each of the affiliated clubs regarding joint management of the clubs and to determine from time to time the pro rata share to be paid toward the administrative expenses and salary burden of the Club.
- 46.4. That all amounts collected in respect of annual subscriptions and caravan site fees for the 1997/1998 year be appropriated by MANCOM in its discretion toward each respective member's share of the Club's subscriptions and thereafter toward the fees/subscriptions of the 4 affiliated clubs once established.

47. WINDING UP OF THE CLUB

If at a Special General Meeting called for such purpose, the members decide to wind up the affairs of the Club, the assets remaining after settling all liabilities, shall be disposed of after consultation with South African Sailing (S.A.S.) in such manner as shall be decided by the Trustees of the Club and the President of S.A.S. to promote the interests of yachting in Gauteng and the Free State in particular.

48. LIABILITY

The Club does not accept any liability or responsibility for the actions of its staff members, other members' visitors and / or guests (list not exhaustive) that may result in or be the cause of any possible injury, damage to property or any other loss to any other party or Club member.
